

Rev. Mitri Raheb

Will discuss his newest book, Bethlehem Besieged: Stories of Hope in Times of Trouble the untold story of the siege of Bethlehem (www.fortresspress.com)

“This...heart-rending account...should shake us out of complicity with the injustice being visited on ordinary people.”

– Archbishop Desmond Tutu

Come and hear one of the most thoughtful Christian voices in the Middle East today reflect on current conditions in Palestine and share stories of peacemakers in that region! The Rev. Dr. Raheb is Pastor of Christmas Lutheran Church in Bethlehem and Director of Bethlehem's International Center (www.annadwa.org).

Monday, June 7 7:30 pm (Lecture followed by reception.)

Unitarian Universalist Church of Arlington

4444 Arlington Boulevard (at George Mason Drive), Arlington, VA (703) 892-2565

This event is co-sponsored by the Washington Interfaith Alliance for Middle East Peace, UUC of Arlington, The Luther Institute, the River Road Unitarian Church-Social Justice Council, the Arab American Institute, and the Arab American Anti-discrimination Committee. RSVP not required. For more information, please see <http://www.wiamep.org> or contact Nathan Rich 301.574.3548.

Tuesday, June 8 7:30 pm (Lecture followed by reception.)

Redeemer Lutheran Church

1545 Chain Bridge Road, McLean, VA (703) 356-3346

RSVP to the Luther Institute, 202.547.5504, or email mitchell@lutherinst.org.

Wednesday, June 9 12:10 pm (beverage provided)

Lutheran Church of the Reformation

212 E. Capitol Street, Washington, DC (202) 543-4200

This event is co-sponsored by The Luther Institute, the Lutheran Office for Governmental Affairs ELCA (122 C Street, NW, Washington, DC), and the Lutheran Church of the Reformation, Washington, DC. RSVP to the Lutheran Church of the Reformation, 202.543.4200.