GAZA: In Search of Our Common Humanity

Interfaith Worship Service with Muslim, Jewish and Christian Teachings

Our workshop will feature speakers deeply connected to this land and issue:

- Dua' Nakhala is an American University Political Science Doctoral student from Gaza
- Phil Farah is a Palestinian Christian from Jerusalem whose family originates from Gaza
- Kay Halpern is a concerned American Jew & active member of a local area synagogue
- Mai Abdul Rahman is a Palestinian Muslim & president, American Palestinian Women's Assn.

History and context about Gaza and Hamas to better understand a little known area for most Americans. What has the current fighting and on-going blockade done to Gaza? What can the future hold for Gaza? What can we do here today to help promote a negotiated settlement between Palestinians and Israelis? How can we get more accurate information about Gaza? Photos will be shown of the recent IDF attack against Gaza and a discussion of the Hamas rockets fired into southern Israel with a sense of Israelis' fears and anxieties. Q&A will follow presentations.

Sunday, February 22nd
2-4 PM

Paint Branch Unitarian Universalist Church

3215 Powder Mill Road, Adelphi, MD (Go to www.pbuuc.org for directions)

Hosted by: Paint Branch Social Action Committee
